
In observance of
SOS 10th Year Anniversary

The Florida Black Women's Consultation Group will launch a social media mobilization campaign
June 18 -20, 2018
on Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter.

We will be sharing the messaging listed below to raise awareness about Black women's health specifically the impact HIV/AIDS has had on this community.

Please join us by posting the messages below to your social media and other sites that address issues affecting Black women on June 18-19.

On Friday June 20th we are asking you to post a video or do a Facebook live feed to share with the world how HIV or being involved with the Sistas Organizing to Survive (SOS) initiative has affected you over the past 10 years.

Thank you for helping us to organize to survive!

- Be a BOSS! Take charge of your Sexual Health. #FloridaSOS
 - Two Black Women diagnosed daily with HIV are two too many. #FloridaSOS
 - Sistas Organizing to Survive (SOS) is a grassroots mobilization of black women in the fight or health equity and racial justice to end the HIV epidemic. #FloridaSOS
 - Alert! HIV is a disease that knows no boundaries. Black women! Know your status, get tested for HIV. Pass the message and not the disease. #FloridaSOS
 - Every day, two black women are diagnosed with HIV in Florida.
- It's Time to Act! Save Our Future! #FloridaSOS
 - My body, my sexual health, my life.
Learn the facts about HIV and Black women. #FloridaSOS
 - We are the ones we've been waiting for, ending HIV with one sista at a time. #FloridaSOS
-