

Introduction

Thank you for your interest in this research study.

WHAT'S THIS STUDY ABOUT?

The purpose of this research study is to understand the knowledge, attitudes, and behaviors of sexually active young adults as it relates to effective public health messaging for promoting health and risk reduction.

We are conducting 35-minute interviews with eligible providers to help us understand young adults' knowledge, attitudes, and behaviors.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

To be eligible to participate in this study, you must be a health services provider who:

- Spends at least half (50%) of their time providing direct service care to patients
- Provides sexual health care as part of their direct service care
- Is located in one of the locations below:
 - Greater St. Louis, MO area
 - Greater Los Angeles, CA area
 - Greater Miami, FL area
 - Greater Baton Rouge, LA area

I'M INTERESTED. WHAT'S NEXT?

- If you are interested in participating, you will need to complete a screening form at the link provided below. The screening form will determine if you qualify to take part in this study based on the eligibility criteria above. We will also ask you to provide some relevant demographic information.
- If you qualify to take part in this study, you will be contacted by Alex at LaGrippe Research to review the Informed Consent Forms and provide your consent to participate in this study.
- If you consent to participate, you will be prompted to schedule your interview at a date and time that is convenient for you.
- Once you are scheduled, you will be expected to complete one 35-minute interview with a member of the research team.

NOTE: Even if you are eligible to participate and get scheduled for an appointment, if the target number of participants completes the study before your scheduled appointment, we reserve the right to close all further enrollment and cancel already scheduled appointments. If the target number is reached, you may opt to be placed on a waiting list for the study.

Once you have completed the interview, you will receive the $50.00 via your preferred means of Venmo, CashApp, or Visa eGift Card no later than seven (7) days after you complete your interview. Completing the interview concludes your involvement in the study, and you will be paid if you complete the interview, regardless of what you say during your interview.
