

DO YOU HAVE HIV AND DO YOU INJECT DRUGS?

The University of Miami is looking for adults who have HIV and inject drugs to participate in a treatment study. The study involves research visits and visits with your HIV care provider over the course of 12 months.

You will be compensated for your time & effort.

Interested in more information?

Call 305-773-7286

This research study is a project of the University of Miami is sponsored by the National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA).