

10 steps to build planning council membership

1. Invite colleagues to meetings as potential members.
2. Organize a member recruitment program guided by a plan of action.
3. Arm all council members with the information and tools they need to be recruiters and initiate a membership development day.
4. Build a reputation as a group that starts and ends meetings on time and plans significant, meaningful agendas that can be accomplished in the allotted time.
5. Develop a document or presentation that illustrates to prospective members the outcomes of the council's previous work and explain its contributions to HIV care in your community.
6. Show a genuine interest in prospective members and determine what information they need to make a decision about joining.
7. Develop a council web site that explains mission, accomplishments, operations, and membership requirements and responsibilities.
8. Submit information about planning council accomplishments and membership needs to local newspapers, electronic media, and relevant listserves.
9. Develop a planning council business card to hand out at appropriate functions.
10. Wear "Ask me about being a planning council member" button at functions and conferences with potential members.
